

Ingles

her name's Noemi.

she is a tall girl, she's thin, and she has got long, curly and black hair. she has got black eyes. she doesn't wear glasses. Noemi is very beautiful, attractive and very funny.

she has lots of positive points. she's a very good friend, she understands me, she's also very kind and very hard-working. but she also has some negative points. she's a little bit irresponsible and a bit gossipier.

she is good at school. she likes Maths and French. Noemi listens to all my problems and she gives me good advice.

she loves playing basketball and swimming. (she's very good at sport). she also loves listening to music and dancing, even though her favourite hobby is reading books.

to conclude, she's my best friend and I'm lucky to have her for a friend.
